Saint Mary's falls to seventh place after second day at NCAA Women's Golf Championships

The Belles fell slightly off their opening day pace during the second round of the Division-III Golf Championships, slipping two slots to seventh place with two days yet to play.

Their two day total (339-345—684) is still better than the previous second day scores from their past two visits to the Championship in 2003 (688) and 2004 (699).

Julia Adams (Sr., Peoria, Ill./Notre Dame HS) is the new leader for the Belles (84-81—165), standing alone in thirteenth place. Megan Mattia (Jr., LaGrange, Ill./Lyons Township HS) is tied for nineteenth (81-87—168), while Stefanie Simmerman (Sr., Phoenix, Ariz./Mountain Pointe HS) is tied at twenty-seventh (86-85—191) with five others.

Also for Saint Mary's, Nicole Bellino (Monroe, Mich./Saint Mary Catholic Central HS) is tied for fifty-first (88-92—180) and Chrissy Dunham (Sr., Columbus, Ohio/Bishop Watterson HS) is tied for fifty-fourth (90-93—183).

Methodist College (N.C.) increased their first round lead over Mary Hardin-Baylor (Texas) and the rest of the field with an even better round than their opening sizzler (318), today carding a 313 for a two day total of 631. Mary Hardin-Baylor sits second at 642 and Wisconsin – Eau Claire is third with a two day score of 666.
